

Wisconsin's No Call List has improved the quality of our lives. I want our law to remain as is. Wisconsin citizens need to make it clear to the Federal government that we do not want to be exposed to telemarketing from a businesses or its affiliates simply because we have had contact with the business. We need to make certain that the FCC puts consumers, not these complanies first. Thanks